

Notes on Contributors

José Manuel Estévez-Saá Ph. D (English), LL.M. Eur (Law), M. Phil (Politics & Sociology), is a Senior Lecturer / Tenured Professor at the University of A Coruña and the Amergin University Institute of Research in Irish Studies in Spain. He is the Director of the International Policy and Transcultural Relations Observatory (OPIRET-UDC) and has held teaching positions at the University of Santiago de Compostela and University of Seville and has served as Visiting Professor at the University of California Santa Barbara (UCSB) and City University of New York (CUNY-CCNY). His main fields of research are Contemporary Literature, Critical Theory, International Politics and Cultural Studies, areas in which he has published widely. Estévez-Saá is a research member of projects funded by the Spanish Ministry of Science and Innovation, the Ministry of Economy and Competitiveness, and the Regional Galician Government.

E-mail: jmestevezsaa@udc.es

Susan Philip is Associate Professor at the Department of English, Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences, Universiti Malaya. She has published on Malaysian and Singaporean theatres in English, and is currently researching issues related to the online media and crime fiction.

E-mail: marys@um.edu.my

John Thieme is a Senior Fellow at the University of East Anglia, UK. He previously held Chairs at the University of Hull and London South Bank University and has also taught at the Universities of Guyana and North London and, as an annual Visiting Professor, at the University of Turin. His books include Postcolonial Con-Texts: Writing Back to the Canon, Postcolonial Literary Geographies: Out of Place, The Arnold Anthology of Post-Colonial Literatures and studies of Derek Walcott, V.S. Naipaul and R.K. Narayan. He was Editor of The Journal of Commonwealth Literature from 1992 to 2011 and is General Editor of the Manchester University Press Contemporary World Writers Series. His creative writing (fiction and poetry) has been published in Argentina, Canada, Hong Kong, India, Italy, The Netherlands, the UK and the USA.

E-mail: j.thieme@uea.ac.uk

Malachi Edwin Vethamani is Professor of Modern English Literature at the University of Nottingham Malaysia Campus. His first collection of poems, Complicated Lives, was published in 2016 by Maya Press. His latest publication is the edited volume, Malchin Testament: Malaysian Poems (2017). His other publications include A Bibliography of Malaysian Literature in English (2015).

E-mail: Malachi.Vethamani@nottingham.edu.my

Ludmila Volná teaches Indian writing in English at Charles University, Prague. Her research interests are in Indian and Czech literatures. She has two co-edited volumes to her credit, Children of Midnight: Contemporary Indian Novels in English (Pencraft International, 2012) and Education et Sécularisme: Perspectives Africaines et Asiatiques (L'Harmattan Paris, 2013), in addition to a number of papers published in anthologies and peer-reviewed journals. Ludmila has presented lectures and conference papers in Europe, Asia and America. She is a member of several academic associations and is the non-India membership representative at IACLALS (Delhi). She also sits on the editorial and advisory boards of academic journals.

E-mail: ludmila.volna@free.fr

Andrea Yew is a graduate of the University of Edinburgh, UK and is currently an educator based in Singapore. Her creative work will appear in the inaugural issue of the literary magazine Sacroscant (Singapore) and is also due to be published in ASINGBOL, an anthology dedicated to a poetic form indigenous to Singapore.

E-mail: andreyew92@gmail.com